

Using Blackboard Open Content for Blackboard Classroom

ABOUT THIS COURSE

Learn how to leverage Blackboard Open Content within Blackboard Classroom. Blackboard Open Content is an advanced learning object repository that allows users to author and store rich educational materials. Using Blackboard Open Content will change the way you discover, deliver, share, author, and copyright content.

WHO CAN BENEFIT FROM THIS COURSE

- Teachers, course builders, trainers and anyone else who touches the building of online or hybrid courses and is new to Blackboard Open Content.
- Site administrators who would like to learn more about the course building process with Blackboard Open Content in Blackboard Classroom.

WHAT YOU WILL LEARN

- Discuss what Blackboard Open Content is and what it can do.
- Explain the Blackboard Open Content licensing model.
- Explain the various copyright licenses.
- Navigate in Blackboard Open Content.
- Search Blackboard Open Content to find content.
- Reuse existing Blackboard Open Content resources in a course.
- Create a new version of content based on an existing Blackboard Open Content resource.
- Manage versioning of resources.
- Author new content resources in Blackboard Open Content.
- Use channels to distribute content within Blackboard Open Content.
- Grade in Blackboard Open Content.

WHAT TO EXPECT

- Enrollment duration: 30 days
- Delivery method: This course is available as an online, non-facilitated, self-paced course.
- Time commitment: 2-4 hours